Welcome to the club!

Why don't you go back to your own country!

Waiting list!
Parents put their son forward for membership of a club and are told that there is a waiting list. Apparently, the waiting list does not exist for children with a Dutch surname.
I really should tell the team, or I can’t go on coaching them.

We want fewer, fewer, fewer Moroccans!
A youth coach is dreading telling people at his football club that he is gay.

Players make discriminatory remarks against two boys of Moroccan descent.
My father was in the commandos, my mother was in the SS. Together they burned Jews, cause Jews they burn the best.

Play tougher out there! You’re not a bunch of poofs, are you?
FC Utrecht supporters chant anti-Jewish slogans during a match between FC Utrecht and AJAX (2015). FC Utrecht is fined €10,000.

A football coach is addressing a group of young players at half-time.
On Facebook, people comment ‘FC Aap’ (‘FC Monkey’) under a group selfie posted by Leroy Fer.

Gays are not sporty and their motor skills are different. That is why you don’t see them in football.
In November 2014, Leroy Fer posts a group selfie on Facebook, featuring himself and a number of other players of colour from the Dutch football team. The selfie gets racist comments such as ‘FC Monkey’.

In an interview, trainer Frank de Boer explains how gays are not very sporty, which is why there are so few gay men in football.
Look at those women playing football.

What a waste of the grass.

I’ll keep an extra close eye on those boys.
Two men making sexist remarks about women.

A shop manager pays extra attention to two boys because of their background.
My dream job would be...

Staying in the kitchen and taking care of the kids... Hahaha!

Is your daughter 12 years old? That’s old enough for refugee use.
A boy makes a sexist remark about a girl in his class.
Such great design! Quite an achievement for someone with a vocational background.

I don’t want him to help me.
7 TEACH